

Trip Levels and Ages

Level One
Ages 10-11. Ages 9 and 12 may enroll if attending with a sibling, cousin, friend in age range.
Low risk, low intensity activities that last on average 4-5 hours during the day.
Supplemental activities such as swimming and playing games are added to manage time.
Campers stay in one location throughout the week.
Nights are spent in a structure with some sort of permanent roof, no tent camping

Level Two
Ages 12-14. Age 12 is strict due to whitewater rafting. Age 15 may attend with Director approval.
Activities are at moderate risk and last about 6-8 hours.
Supplemental activities such as swimming and playing games are added to manage time.
Campers stay in one location throughout the week. The last day may be in a different area.
Campers are introduced to tent camping in one-person tents. Three person tents available, req.

Level Three
Ages 13-16. Age 12 is allowed if the camper has done a level 2 trip before. 17 with Director app.
Moderate- high risk activities at high intensity and last about 6-8 hours.
Starting at the furthest point, trips work their way back to camp throughout the week.
Campers stay in multiple different locations, traveling 1-2 hours each day.
1person tents are used, and campers are expected to set up with no help from staff after 1 st day.

Level Four
Ages 14-17. Age 13 is allowed if the camper has done a level 3 trip before.
Moderate- high risk activities at high intensity and last about 6-8 hours.
Typically (but not all) travel to a specific region for 8-9 days.
Campers stay in multiple different locations, traveling 1-2 hours each day.
One person tents are used. Other forms of lodging may be used on long travel days.

Level Five
Ages 16-17. No exceptions due to whitewater rafting and outfitter prerequisites.
High risk activities. Must know how to swim, must know how to paddle.
Trips can range from one week to two weeks depending on the price of activities and travel.
Trip will travel a lot. 1-2 hours most days but may require a full driving day mid-week.
One person tents are used. Other forms of lodging may be used on long travel days.