

Mountain Momma: Junior Version

Taking the exciting Mountain Momma trip, that is a major hit at Fitch, and making it younger camper friendly! On this level one version of Mountain Momma, campers will stay in cabins with a roof over their heads. This glamping will take place at Ace Resort in West Virginia. Activities will include white water rafting the upper portion of the New River (Class III rapids), playing in a water park multiple days, rock climbing, going on a two-mile hike, and enjoying several other local tourist favorites including doing the bridge walk! Let us seek out new adventures and new friendships!
